

Each month, hundreds of babies leave Clark County hospitals with very little. Some have absolutely nothing!

Angels In The Valley was created to ensure that all babies leave the hospital with weather-appropriate clothing.

Since the fall of 2006, Angels In The Valley has provided over 1,300 going home layettes, free of charge, to local hospitals. Each layette contains blankets, at least three outfits, socks and a hat.

The need this year is great. By providing new infant clothing and blankets, you can help Angels In The Valley continue to clothe these precious babies in warmth and love.
